- 10.2. Under the Scheme, the Debtor Bank is entitled to recover the amount of a Refund from the Creditor Bank and the Creditor Bank is entitled to recover the amount of this Refund from the Creditor.

- 10.3. A Refund does not relieve the Debtor of its responsibility to resolve any issues in respect of the disputed Collection with the Creditor, nor does the payment of a Refund by the Debtor Bank prejudice the outcome of such a dispute. Issues in respect of any disputes or discussions between a Debtor and a Creditor in relation to a Collection are outside the scope of the Scheme.
- 10.4. No-questions-asked Basis
- The Debtor is entitled to request a Refund for any SEPA Direct Debit within 8 weeks from the date on which the amount of the SEPA Direct Debit was debited from his Payment Account. Where the Debtor Bank will exercise its right to receive Refund compensation, it must recover this compensation from the Creditor Bank by specifying the amount of the Refund compensation in its Collection Refund instruction to JCC.
 - The Settlement is executed by crediting the Debtor Bank and debiting the Creditor Bank for the initial amount of the Collection and for any specified Refund compensation calculated by the Debtor Bank. The latest day for the Settlement of such a Refund request is 2 Inter-Bank Business Days after the end of the eight-week period.

In such a case, the Creditor must provide the Creditor Bank with a copy of the Mandate within 7 Business Days of receiving a notification provided the Creditor does not accept the Debtor's request.
 - The Creditor may give the Creditor Bank further documents to prove that the Collection is not unauthorized and the Creditor Bank will send these documents together with the Mandate to the Debtor's Bank.
 - The Debtor's Bank may, at its own discretion, decide whether to Refund the Collection or reject the Refund request. If the Debtor's Bank accepts to Refund the Debtor it may claim the amount of the Refund from the Creditor Bank.
 - In case of execution of the Refund claim the same Refund compensation as provided in paragraph 10.4 above may be recovered from the Creditor Bank by the Debtor Bank.
 - The Settlement is executed by crediting the Debtor Bank and debiting the Creditor Bank for the initial amount of the Collection and for any specified Refund compensation calculated by the Debtor Bank.

JCC will, then, forward the Reversal, with the Scheme-imposed attributes as provided in the Rulebook, to the Debtor Bank.
- 11.4. The Debtor Bank will credit the Debtor's Payment Account. The Debtor Bank is not obliged to check whether the Collection has been debited to the Debtor's Payment Account or if it has been Rejected, Returned or Refunded.

The Bank shall notify the Cardholder of the revocation and the reasons for it, either prior to the revocation or, at the latest, immediately after it, unless by doing so the Bank would be acting in breach of applicable law or regulations, or if notification would be contrary to objective security concerns. As soon as the reasons for the revocation cease, the Bank shall reverse the revocation or replace the Card.
11. The Bank may issue additional Cards in relation to the Card Account(s), in the name of any other person as requested by the Card Account Owner, and the provisions of this Section G shall apply equally to such Cards. The amounts appearing on sale receipts shall be payable in whole and no claim of the Cardholder against the business may constitute the cause of a set off or a counterclaim against the Bank except in the case where such business issues a refund receipt for a particular Card Transaction, in which case the Bank will credit the Card Account with the amount appearing as payable on the refund receipt.

5. Holding Securities on behalf of Customer

- 5.1. The Customer may request the opening of a Custody Account in the form of APPENDIX 1 attached hereto and duly executed by an Authorised Person.
- 5.2. The Customer should have a Current Account already opened with the Bank prior to requesting opening of a Custody Account.
- 5.3. The Bank may accept for safe keeping those Securities, where provision of safekeeping services with regard to such Securities is not limited or prohibited by Cyprus legislation, rules, regulations, directives and/or guidelines issued by competent authorities. The Bank shall have the right, in its sole discretion, to refuse to accept Securities for deposit for any reason whatsoever. The Bank shall not be responsible for any property of the Customer held or received by the Customer or others and not delivered to and accepted by the Bank or any of its Sub-Custodians as hereinafter provided.
- 5.4. The Bank shall receive and hold on behalf of the Customer all Securities duly delivered to it by or on behalf of the Customer and accepted by the Bank, in the Custody Account and shall ensure that such Securities (other than those in bearer form and other non-registrable form) are registered in the name of the Bank or of a Sub-Custodian (which may be appointed under paragraph 5.5 of this Section H) or in such other name as may be customary in the country or countries of the relevant Securities. Documents of title (including bearer stocks) will be held by the Bank or any Sub-Custodian as the case may be, unless the Bank otherwise deems fit.
- 5.5. Unless the Customer expressly requests otherwise, the Bank may at its own discretion entrust any Securities to a Sub-Custodian of its choice and can delegate to any such Sub-Custodian any of the powers or duties accorded to the Bank hereunder.
- 5.6. In selecting the Sub-Custodians, the Bank exercises due skill, care and diligence taking into consideration the Sub-Custodians' expertise, market reputation and status, as well as any legal or regulatory requirements or market practices related to the holding of financial instruments that could adversely affect the Customer's rights.
- 5.7. Where the registration or the holding of any Securities requires any notification or other formality or perfection requirement to be complied with under the provisions of a law or regulation (issued by a competent authority) of the country where the issuer of the Securities is incorporated or of the country where the Securities are listed, the Customer undertakes to notify the Bank of such requirement at least 10 (ten) Business Days prior to the deadline for such requirement. Failure to do so by the Customer exonerates the Bank from any liability for damages or any other negative consequences resulting from any failure by it to comply with any such requirement.
- 5.8. The Customer acknowledges and agrees that the Bank may disclose information which the Bank receives from the Customer, about the Customer (including personal data), the Customer's transactions and Accounts as part of the Bank's transaction reporting obligations, to the relevant competent authority. The Customer also acknowledges and agrees (and hereby instructs the Bank to) that upon demand of a third party or an issuer of a Security, the Bank shall comply with any disclosure obligations the Bank may have pursuant to any (i) contractual obligations with any custodian, depository, sub-custodian, clearing house or agent, or any counterparty, or (ii) legal obligation in the relevant market, in connection with any of the Securities.
- 5.9. The Customer may instruct and authorize the Bank to disclose any details of the Customer for Corporate Actions for a year without requesting Customers' consent for each Corporate Action. Annual authorization form is set out in APPENDIX 8. Initial annual authorization might be extended, each time for one more year, through letter set out in APPENDIX 9.
- 5.10. The Bank only deposits Securities with a third party (sub-custodian) in a jurisdiction where the safekeeping of Securities for the account of another person is subject to specific regulation and supervision and that sub-custodian is subject to this specific regulation and supervision. The Customer understands, acknowledges and accepts that in such circumstances the Securities will be subject to the laws and regulations of a jurisdiction other than the jurisdiction under which the Custodian Services are provided and the Customer's rights in relation to the Securities may differ accordingly. The Customer hereby acknowledges and accepts that, where the Bank holds any Securities outside the European Union, or arranges for any Securities to be held by another person outside the European Union, there may be different settlement, legal and regulatory requirements in those overseas jurisdictions from those applying in the European Union, together with different practices for the separate identification of the Securities. The Bank does not deposit Securities held on behalf of clients with a sub-custodian in a non-EU member state that does not regulate the holding and safekeeping of Securities for the account of another person unless one of the following conditions is met:

- The nature of the Securities or of the investment services connected with those Securities requires them to be deposited with a sub-custodian in that third country;
- Where the Securities are held on behalf of a professional client, that client requests the Bank in writing to deposit them with a sub-custodian in that third country.

The above terms shall also apply when the sub-custodian has delegated any of its functions concerning the holding and safekeeping of Securities to another third-party.

- 5.11. The Bank (or any Sub-Custodian) may combine Securities held for the Customer with Securities of the same type held by it for other clients in an Omnibus Account. In the event that any such Securities are called for partial redemption by the issuer of such securities, the Bank may (subject to the rules or regulations of any securities depository and to any applicable laws or regulations of the jurisdiction in which the relevant securities have been deposited or issued) allot, or cause to be allotted, the called portion to the respective beneficial holders of such class of security in any manner the Bank deems to be fair and equitable.
- 5.12. The Bank will take all the necessary steps to ensure that the Customer's Securities are safeguarded. Specifically, the Bank will:
- maintain records and accounts enabling the Bank at any time and without delay to distinguish Securities held for one client from Securities held for any other client and from the Bank's own Securities;
 - maintain the Bank's records and accounts in a way that ensures their accuracy, and in particular their correspondence to the Securities held for clients and that they may be used as an audit trail;
 - conduct, on a regular basis, reconciliations between the Bank's internal accounts and records and those of any sub-custodians by whom those Securities are held;
 - take the necessary steps to ensure that any client Securities deposited with a sub-custodian, in accordance with this paragraph 5, are identifiable separately from the Securities belonging to the Bank and from Securities belonging to that sub-custodian, by means of differently titled accounts on the books of the sub-custodian or other equivalent measures that achieve the same level of protection;
 - introduce adequate organisational arrangements to minimise the risk of the loss or diminution of client Securities, or of rights in connection with those Securities, as a result of misuse of the Securities, fraud, poor administration, inadequate record-keeping or negligence;
 - introduce arrangements to ensure that clients' Securities are safeguarded in the case of insolvency;
 - appoint a single officer of sufficient skill and authority with specific responsibility, but not sole, for the safeguarding of client Securities and cash.
- 5.13. The Bank will open, or cause to be opened in the Bank's books and records Custody Accounts for the recording of the Customer's Securities. The Bank may, for administrative purposes, combine and operate Custody Accounts as a single ledger. These Accounts will at all times be segregated from accounts in which the Bank holds designated Securities on its own behalf.
- 5.14. Where the Securities are subject to the law or market practice outside Cyprus and it is in the Customer's best interest to do so or it is not feasible to do otherwise, the Bank may register or record the Customer's custody assets in the name of a custodian. Where the Customer specifically instructs the Bank in writing to arrange for the Customer's Securities to be registered in the name of any specific person, the consequences of depositing the Securities with such person shall be entirely at the Customer's own risk.
- 5.15. Where the Bank holds any documents of title to the Customer's Securities in accordance with the Customer's written Instructions, the consequences of doing so are entirely at the Customer's own risk.

6. Customer's Instructions and Income Collection

- 6.1. Any Instructions shall be in English and shall contain all information required as per APPENDIX 3, APPENDIX 4, APPENDIX 5, APPENDIX 6 and the Bank shall be under no obligation to carry out any Instructions which do not comply with the above requirements.
- 6.2. Instructions are deemed to be submitted to the Bank if they are received by the Bank in one of the means of communication instructed by the Customer as per the "Request for opening Custody Account" (APPENDIX 1).
- 6.3. As of the date of receipt of any Instructions the Bank shall be entitled to block the transfer of any funds out of any Account as may be required with respect to the subject matter of such Instructions and the amount of any commission and charges due to the Bank in relation thereto.
- 6.4. The Customer shall ensure that all Instructions are received by the Bank by 17:00 Cyprus time on any Business Day, otherwise the Bank shall be under no obligation to carry them out on the same Business Day. The Bank shall also have no obligation hereunder to execute any Instructions on any day other than a Business Day or at any times outside the hours of 09:00 - 17:00 Cyprus time. It shall be the responsibility of the Customer to check that Instructions in each instance have been duly received by the Bank. Instructions received by the Bank after the cut-off time at 17:00 Cyprus time will be executed on the next Business Day. The Customer shall bear sole liability for any consequences in general which may arise as a result. The Bank shall not incur liability for any late submission by the Customer.
- 6.5. Upon receipt of Instructions, and provided that these are complete, duly signed and delivered in accordance herewith, the Bank shall accept receipt of, transfer, exchange or, as the case may be, deliver Securities, or shall cause the transfer, exchange or, as the case may be, the delivery of Securities to be made for the Account of the Customer. Any Instructions given in relation to any of the Custodian Services shall be regarded by the Custodian as final and binding on the Customer.

- 6.6. The Bank shall not be obliged to comply with any Instructions received where it reasonably believes that carrying out such Instructions would be contrary to applicable law, regulation, instruments of incorporation of the Customer or market practice or where it is not provided with satisfactory verification, confirmation or clarification of Instructions where the Bank has requested such verification, confirmation or clarification from the Customer. The Bank shall notify the Customer to this effect.
- 6.7. The Bank may act on Instructions without enquiry. Notwithstanding the foregoing, where the Bank seeks verification, confirmation or clarification of any Instructions received, it shall not be liable to the Customer for any losses whatsoever in relation to any delay resulting from the Bank seeking verification, confirmation or clarification or from any refusal to act where the Bank does not receive in its sole discretion satisfactory confirmation or clarification of such Instructions.
- 6.8. The Bank may in good faith and at its sole discretion amend Instructions where necessary to comply with applicable law, regulation, instruments of incorporation of the Customer or market practice where doing so would not materially alter the nature of such Instructions. The Bank shall not be liable for any losses whatsoever resulting from any amendment so made to the Instructions.
- 6.9. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary stated herein, wherever the funds and/or Securities available in an Account are insufficient for the Bank to execute any Instructions and deduct the applicable commission and charges wholly or partly, the Bank shall not be required to execute the Instructions and shall not be liable for any consequences which may arise as a result.
- 6.10. Notwithstanding anything contained hereinabove, the Bank has the right, in its sole discretion, to refuse to execute any Instructions in the event that:
- i. the Bank is unable to execute the Instructions in accordance with their terms due to the current market conditions or where execution of the Instructions may, in the sole opinion of the Bank, cause the Bank to be (a) in breach of any legal or regulatory requirements; or (b) acting outside the current customary business practices prevailing in the relevant market; or (c) in breach of any internal rule or regulation of any relevant market participant; or
 - ii. the person providing the Instructions does not have valid authorisation to do so; or
 - iii. the Instructions exceed the scope of the Bank's function as contemplated by this Section H; or
 - iv. the Customer fails to provide all information and documentation required to be provided by it hereunder; or
 - v. such refusal is otherwise authorised under the terms of this Section H.
- The Bank shall notify the Customer to this effect.

- 6.11. The Bank shall collect and receive all income, distributions and other payments (including monies received from payment of proceeds from Securities) in respect of the Securities. All such funds (unless otherwise instructed) shall be transferred into a Current Account, details of which are specified by the Customer in the "Request for opening Custody Account" (APPENDIX1). Any monies which are received by the Bank in a currency other than the account specified by the Customer shall, prior to crediting to the specified account, be first converted into the currency of the said account at the Bank's prevailing exchange rate on the date of receipt of such monies. The cost for such conversion shall be borne by the Customer in accordance with the Bank's Table of Commissions and Charges.
- 6.12. Upon and in accordance with duly executed and received Instructions, the Bank may instruct the Sub-Custodian to receive and hold to the order of the Bank, all monies paid in relation to any Securities.
- 6.13. Any Securities held on the Customer's behalf may be pooled with those Securities of other clients. This means that the Customer's entitlement may not be individually identifiable on the relevant company register, by separate certificates or electronic records (other than the Bank's). In the event of an unreconciled shortfall caused by the default of a custodian, the Customer may share proportionately in that shortfall.
- 6.14. Except as required by any applicable legislation, the Bank shall have no responsibility to submit any tax returns to any taxation authority in respect of the income or distributions made to the Customer in relation to the Securities and it shall remain the responsibility of the Customer to undertake all such necessary reporting.

7. Corporate Action

- 7.1. The Bank shall have no obligation to obtain information concerning Corporate Actions and shall have general discretion in deciding whether to notify the Customer, to seek Instructions from the Customer or to take any action in relation to a Corporate Action which involves the exercise of rights (including voting, conversion and subscription rights) that arise in relation to any of the Securities.
- 7.2. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing and without imposing any obligation on the Bank to make enquiries or otherwise in relation to Corporate Actions, the Bank will use reasonable efforts to notify the Customer of any Corporate Action which has come to the attention of the Bank and which it considers to be in the best interests of the Customer. Where such Corporate Action involves the exercise of rights (including voting, conversion and subscription rights) and the Bank has notified the Customer of same, the Bank shall take no action in respect thereof unless and until it receives clear instructions and appropriate authority from the Customer, save that the Bank will only take action in relation to Local Securities where there has been prior agreement with the Customer.
- 7.3. Where the Bank notifies the Customer of a Corporate Action in accordance with paragraph 7.2 of this Section H, the Bank shall not be liable for verification of the information it has received in relation to the Corporate Action (whether from the issuer of the Securities or from a Sub-Custodian).
- 7.4. For the purposes of this paragraph 7, any instructions sent to the Bank must be received by the Bank at least 5 Business Days before any action is required in respect of the Corporate Action. The Bank shall have no obligation hereunder to deal with any instructions received after such time and it shall be the responsibility of the Customer to check that instructions in each instance have been duly received by the Bank.

8. Reporting to the Customer

- 8.1. The Bank shall provide the Customer with a monthly report (“Portfolio statement”) in a durable medium showing the receipt or transfer by the Bank of all Securities of the Customer, confirm Customer holding in all Securities as of report date, all exchanges of Securities made by the Customer, all income or capital and allocated dividends in respect of the Securities stock and, in general, shall keep the Customer informed as to all transactions and any other actions of the Bank undertaken pursuant to any instructions.
- 8.2. The Bank will forward the Portfolio statement to Customer as indicated by the Customer in the “Request for opening a Custody Account (APPENDIX 1).
- 8.3. The Customer may request up to 3 (three) additional Portfolio statements per month at no cost; any further Portfolio statements requested during any calendar month shall be charged in accordance with the Bank’s Table of Commission and Charges, as amended from time to time.
- 8.4. Nothing contained herein shall limit the right of the Bank to treat the Securities as fungible instruments and the Customer agrees that it has no right to a particular Security instrument deposited with the Bank (or as the case may be the Sub-Custodian) but only to an equivalent Security as is recorded in the Custody Account.

9. Blocking of transactions with securities on a Custody Account and peculiarities of transactions with pledged securities

- 9.1. The Bank may block and/or unblock transactions relating to specific Securities in a Custody Account in the following cases:
 - by Instructions to create/terminate pledge of Securities in the form of APPENDIX 7 given by the Customer;
 - based on individual agreements between the Bank and a Customer authorising the Bank to block Customers’ Securities (including sale-purchase and escrow agreements);
 - by court decision or ruling;
 - on the basis of directives, decisions, guidelines, orders, regulations and/or other documents issued by competent authorities;
 - under any community or national legislation, such as the legislation on money laundering and the financing of terrorism, in particular as regards its “know-your-customer” duty;
 - where there is an injunction or order from any competent authority to freeze funds or any other specific measure associated with preventing or investigating crime;
 - in the event the Bank notes that false or incomplete declarations have been made by the Customer, or notes transactions inconsistent with the Customer’s profile or with declarations made by the Customer on entering into a relationship with the Bank or at a later date, or which deviate from the Customer’s usual operations;
 - where the Customer contravenes any obligation entered into vis-à-vis the Bank, whether in accordance with this document or any other agreement or declaration; and/or
 - in the event an unusual situation concerning the format of an operation or Instruction, its amount, reference or any other characteristic of the Instruction or operation leads the Bank to suspect that it has not been instigated by the Customer, is false or has been altered. In such a case, the Bank shall be authorised to suspend the Instruction and/or block the Customer’s Accounts without liability until it has successfully verified same with the Customer.
- 9.2. Blocking and unblocking of transactions relating to specific Securities in a Custody Account on the basis of a pledge agreement or arrangement is performed by the Bank based on a pledge instruction in the form of APPENDIX 7 signed by both the pledgee and the pledgor, either on a single document or in counterparts. In latter case the Bank will accept the Instruction provided that both counterparts are identical. Unblocking of pledged Securities pursuant to a court decision or ruling is performed by the Bank based on relevant documents received and issued by the court.
- 9.3. Securities blocked or pledged remain in the Customer’s Custody Account of Customer/pledgor and the status of blocking is shown in Portfolio statement, unless prohibited by applicable law.
- 9.4. Transfer of pledged Securities is performed by the Bank based on single transfer Instruction in form of APPENDIX 3 signed by both, the pledgor and the pledgee, unless initial pledge Instruction stipulates transfer of pledged Securities differently. Pledgor and pledgee may provide individual Instructions in form of APPENDIX 3 and APPENDIX 4 signed separately. In this case the Bank will record transfer/assignment of rights provided that all details of both pledge Instructions are identical. The Bank shall be under no obligation to verify whether transfer or assignment of rights under pledge agreement is legal and valid.

10. Settlement

- 10.1. Settlement of a Trade and payment or delivery of Securities received into or transferred from the Custody Account shall be effected in accordance with the applicable laws or practice of the relevant jurisdiction, including making delivery of the Securities before payment and paying for the Securities before delivery, as applicable.
- 10.2. The Bank will use reasonable endeavours to settle any Trade in accordance with the Customer’s Instructions save that Settlement will in all cases be dependent on expeditious delivery to the Bank of sufficient funds or, as the case may be, the relevant Securities to effect Settlement.
- 10.3. On Instructions from the Customer and subject to sufficient monies being available in the Current Account, the Bank shall:
 - 10.3.1. effect any payment required to be made in respect of any Trade;
 - 10.3.2. transfer all or any of the available balance on the Current Account to another nominated account;
 - 10.3.3. transfer all or any of the available balance on the Current Account to a successor custodian subject to the provisions of paragraph 15 hereof.

and, for the purposes of this paragraph 10.3, “available balance” shall be the amount standing to the credit of the Current Account less any Custody Fees due in accordance herewith.

- 10.4. There shall be no obligation by the Bank to make Settlement hereunder unless it is in receipt of sufficient cash or, as the case may be, relevant Securities in deliverable form.
- 10.5. The Bank may deduct from the Current Account (or where insufficient funds are available, from funds realised by liquidating sufficient of the Securities) any and all taxes and levies in the nature of taxes payable to any governmental or taxing authority in any relevant jurisdiction to register the Securities applicable on a transfer into or out of the Custody Account.
- 10.6. Where the Customer does not maintain a Current Account in the currency of Settlement, the Bank shall first convert the Settlement amount from the currency of the Current Account at the Bank's prevailing exchange rate on the date of payment of such monies. The cost of such conversion shall be borne by the Customer in accordance with the Bank's Table of Commissions and Charges.
- 10.7. Where the Bank settles a Trade, or income is paid on Assets, outside the jurisdiction in which Custodian Services are provided hereunder, the Customer's Assets may need to pass through an intermediary outside the jurisdiction in which the Custodian Services are provided and the legal and regulatory regime may be different. Where there is a default, the Customer's position may be worse than in the jurisdiction in which the Custody Services are provided and the Bank shall not be liable for loss or damage caused therefrom.

11. Custody Fees and Payments

- 11.1. The Customer shall pay the Custody Fees to the Bank as remuneration for the Custody Services provided hereunder in accordance with the Bank's Table of Commissions and Charges or as agreed separately between the Bank and the Customer.
- 11.2. Additionally the Customer shall pay to the Bank any expenses properly incurred (including expenses incurred relating to the use of the services of any Sub-Custodian) and any domestic and foreign taxes, duties and/or fees or charges levied by any person or authority in relation to the Custody Services, if any (hereinafter the "Charges").
- 11.3. Where any Instructions are given to the Bank hereunder, any subsequent change thereof (where capable of being accepted by the Bank) shall incur an additional fee and the new Instructions shall be regarded as an additional instruction for the purpose of the Custody Fees.
- 11.4. The Custody Fees shall become due and payable on the last Business Day of each calendar quarter and all Charges shall be due and payable on the respective date on which they are incurred and the Bank may debit same from the Current Account on the Business Day when they fall due or on any Business Day thereafter, at its discretion.
- 11.5. In the case where the Customer fails to make any payment due hereunder within the time limit stipulated for such payment, the Bank may proceed to deduct funds from any Account held by the Customer with the Bank and also to sell any Assets belonging to the Customer and held by the Bank as custodian or agent of the Customer, for the purposes of satisfaction of the relevant debt and any interest payable thereon.
- 11.1. In any case where the sum of the Custody Fee together with any applicable Charges is not available for deduction, this shall constitute a breach on the part of the Customer, and the Bank:
 - a. may refuse to carry out further Custodian Services until the breach is remedied; and/or
 - b. terminate the relationship pursuant to paragraph 15.1 below.

12. Conflict of interests

The Bank will take all reasonable steps to prevent conflicts of interest from constituting or giving rise to a material risk of damage to the Customer's interests. Where the Bank cannot, despite having taken those reasonable steps, guarantee with reasonable certainty that the risk of damage to the Customer's interests will be prevented, the Bank will clearly disclose the general nature and/or source of conflict to the Customer before undertaking the activity giving rise to the conflict. Further information on conflicts of interest is detailed in the Bank's Conflicts of Interest Policy, available on the Bank's website, www.rcbcy.com.

13. Taxation

- 13.1.
 - a. The Customer shall in a timely manner provide the Bank with any forms, certifications, declarations, documentation and any other information and proof (copies or originals as appropriate) as the Bank may require from time to time in respect of taxation (including but not limited to the Customer's and/or the underlying beneficial owner's tax status or residence (including, without limitation, an original executed self-certification form for FATCA purposes and an original executed self-certification form for CRS purposes both in form and substance acceptable to the Bank, or any other forms required by tax authorities of other Local Jurisdictions)).
 - b. The Customer warrants that the information provided under paragraph 13.1(a) above is, when provided, true and accurate in every respect, is not misleading in any way and contains all material information.
 - c. The Customer undertakes promptly to inform the Bank of any changes, updates or corrections in respect of the information provided under paragraph 13.1(a) above (to the extent possible prior to any such information becoming obsolete or incorrect) and shall provide the Bank with any additional information and proof that the Bank may request.
 - d. The Bank provides no service in respect of any information provided under this paragraph 13.1, and therefore has no duty in respect of, or liability for any Taxes (which duty or liability shall be solely that of the Customer) that result from:
 - i. the inaccurate completion of documents by the Customer or any third party;
 - ii. provision to the Bank, a Sub-Custodian or a third party of inaccurate or misleading information by the Customer or any third party;
 - iii. the withholding of material information by the Customer or any third party; or
 - iv. as a result of any delay by any tax authority or any other cause beyond the Bank's control.

- a. The Customer is solely responsible and liable for all filings, tax returns and reports (including the appointment of any accounting firm or other representative in a jurisdiction necessary for such purposes) and the payment of and obtaining reclaims, refunds and credits, where applicable, of all Taxes and any other liability or payment which must be made to any relevant authority in respect of the Securities or any Account (or any related custody account opened with a Sub-Custodian).
- b. In relation to tax relief services for each country in which the Customer holds Securities (whether directly or indirectly through a Sub-Custodian) and tax relief may be available, the Bank may in its sole discretion assist the Customer to obtain such tax relief. However, such assistance is without prejudice to the generality of clause 13.2(a) and in no event shall the Bank provide any tax advice nor be responsible, or liable, for any Tax or loss resulting from the inability to secure tax relief or similar, or for the failure of any Customer or beneficial owner to obtain the benefit of any such tax relief.
